

I believe Cellular Telephone Use should continue to NOT be allowed on airbourne aircraft. I am a flight attendant and I believe that if airbourne cell phone use were allowed that in an emergency situation passengers would be busy trying to get in contact with loved ones instead of listening to important commands given by the flight attendants! I also don't want to overhear that one person who doesn't have any phone etiquette fighting with their spouse over the phone for the whole flight!